VERMONT

My heart is where the hills fling up
Green garlands to the day;
'Tis where the blue lake brims her cup,
The sparkling rivers play.
My heart is on the mountains still
Where'er my steps may be;
Vermont, O maiden of the hills,
My heart is there with thee!

Oh, you may find a prouder dame,
With jewel at the ear
And richer robe and louder fame,
But never face so dear!
No queen has had for followers
A bolder train of men;
And when again the need is hers
They shall be hers again!

My heart is where the hills fling up
Green garlands to the day;
'Tis where the blue lake brims her cup,
The sparkling rivers play.
My heart is on the mountains still;
My steps return to thee,
Green-hooded maiden of the hills,
Lady of Liberty!

Dedication

To you, Bristol High School, we dedicate our yearbook, for it was within your walls we learned from the past, found meaning and importance in the present, and prepared for the future.

In Appreciation

We wish to express our most sincere appreciation to the faculty for their understanding and guidance and for the interest they have shown in our future.

Principal

The pleasure you experience as you review the history compiled in the 1964 Deer Leap will obscure the memory of the many sacrifices which made this record possible. If you will continue to direct your powers and energies toward clearly defined objectives, success will crown the record which you have yet to complete.

-- W. Neal Hoadley

Superintendent of Schools

The talent of success is nothing more than doing what you can do well, and doing well whatever you do, without thought of fame.

UNDER PARIS

The class of 1964 presented its Junior-Senior Prom on May 24, 1963, at Mountain Street School Auditorium. The room was decorated to follow the theme, "Under Paris Skies," with sidewalk cafes along the walls and bright red awnings over them. The sky effect was achieved by volumes of blue and white streamers with silver and gold stars on them draped across the ceiling. The throne was built of wood to form an Eiffel Tower.

Hubert Norton, president of the junior class, made the announcement of the king and queen. The king, Michael Tierney, and queen, Susan Adams, were crowned by their senior advisor and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Everton Graves. The Grand March followed the crowning after which the king and queen danced the coronation waltz to the music of Randy McNamara's orchestra from Middlebury College.

Refreshments, made by the committee, consisting of French pastries, cakes, and punch were served outside the auditorium in the "Cafe Chez Nous." Tables were decorated similar to those inside.

Our prom took many months of hard work and planning, but everyone agreed it was well worth it because the result far surpassed our expectations.

1960 — Initiation Memories — 1963

Anxious moments before the storm!

Freshmen await their fate at hands of seniors.

The latest in classical music!

Two freshmen bow to honorable seniors.

Anyone for chocolate pudding?

We enter hoping for mercy.

John Tulley begins his political career.

Wagon Ho!

CLASS POEM

Life is a winding flight of stairs,
Graduation is the first landing there.
Though the past flights
look inviting,
And the ones ahead
are frightening,
We must push on
to greater heights,
To fulfill our lives
in honorable light.
Having climbed the stair
we must leave.
Friends for whom we care,
do not grieve.
Good-bye Bristol High, a friend
dear and true
You know we will always remember you.

Judith Gardner

CLASS SONG

Tune: Climb Every Mountain

Where'er life may lead us,
Where'er each one departs,
We shall always treasure
Bristol High School in our hearts.

The aged halls and classrooms
Will fore'er remain,
A guide to all our triumphs,
The commencement of all our fame.

And as each boy and girl
Starts his life anew,
We'll recall that our lives
Really started in you.

So, farewell Bristol High School;
We'll cherish you evermore,
To thee, forever faithful,
The class of '64.

Class

Take some half pints of first graders from Bristol graded school in the year 1952, namely, David Adams, Judy Booska, Shelly Bouvier, Patricia Brown, Larry Burritt, Roddy Cousino, Lloyd Dike, Judy Gardner, Asahel Hoffnagle, Lenny Halnon, Richard Jimmo, Bonnie Kennedy, Ruth Kennedy, Dianne Lathrop, Patricia Lathrop, Loren Lathrop, Bill Moncrief, Hubie Norton, Arthur Pitkin, and stir well by Mrs. Dike, Mrs. Hannon, and Miss Freeman.

In September of 1953 exchange these ingredients for a couple of rooms of second-graders of slightly larger proportion inspected by Mrs. Orvis and Mrs. DeCoursey. Add a trip to the Creamy stand for flavoring.

Allow mixture to rise until the fall of 1954, when it is kneaded by Mrs. McKean and Miss O'Connor in the third-grade classrooms. Spread thinly over the Recreation Field at the end of the year.

Sun-bake until September, 1955. Add Myke Yashko and Janet Layn and roll into fourth-grade classrooms to be shaped by Mrs. Trombley and Mrs. Baslow and sugared with a trip to Burlington.

Let mixture set until autumn of 1956. Add Ronnie LaRose and send to the fifth grades to be tested by Mrs. Sperry and Mrs. DeCoursey. Sprinkle with root beer and the movies.

Add John Tulley in 1957 under the direction of Mrs. Burke and Mrs. Wright. Enrich with a trip to the Proctor marble quarries. This recipe is now half completed.

If mixture is too flat, salt with Sheila Burke and Brian Brown. Let stand in the warming oven of Bristol Junior High to be timed by Mrs. Whitcomb and Mrs. Wright. Sweeten with a trip to Ethan Allen Park.

Drop in Diane and Rhonda Hutchins and prepare for High School under the watchful eye of Mrs. Ryan. Thicken with class supper and party.

History

If mixture seems tasteless, add Melvin Kelly, Susie Lavoie, Bill Masterson, Judy Robair, Mary Tatro, and Judy Wedge and spice the whole with initiation. Pre-heat high school ovens to the sound of wedding bells for the freshman advisors, Mr. Schmidt and Miss Garand.

Change master chefs from Mr. Breen to Mr. Hoadley, whip into college preparatory, business, and general courses. Cut in class parties and class rings, with class advisors, Mrs. Lamont and Mr. Eldridge, as blenders.

Roast over the coals of Junior class meetings. Baste with Denny Adams, Charlie Cardell, Allen Kimball, and Jeff Quittner. Add the proceeds of class activities, especially the annual Bermuda Holiday. Work in well with the Junior Prom and class parties.

Shake in Glenn Palmore before final baking. For raisins put in one trip to Montreal, several class parties, a good sports record, college boards. Butter with Freshman initiation and the 1964 Prom. Garnish with graduation. Bake with understanding and patience. Cool it with years and frost with memories.

ATTENTION GOURMETS: This recipe not approved by Duncan Hines but guaranteed to serve 38 seniors.

Class

What will the future hold in store for the class of 1964? Let us gaze into our crystal ball and take a prophetic look. Ah! What do we have here? I see two members of the class of 1964 at Trenton, New Jersey. Art Pitkin and Bill Moncrief are being sent on a trip to Santa Cruz, California, to open up a new plant for National Electronics, the firm for which they work.

Art is the assistant engineer in charge of microcircuitry and Bill is the head accountant of National Electronics.

They are planning to look up their classmates as they travel to the West Coast. Hold it now, they're getting into their helicopter and starting the trip.

The first person they are going to stop in on is Larry Burritt, who is the base commander at an Air Force base just outside of Trenton. After having talked with Larry they are heading for Philadelphia, where they see Ruth Kennedy, the head medical technician at the hospital. There they also see Shelly Bouvier and Susan Lavoie who are furthering their nursing careers.

Now, they are getting back into their helicopter and taking off again. They are traveling very comfortable, but wait. What is happening? One of the rotors has stopped moving and they are going down over the next town. Whew! They landed all safely but they have to get their rotor repaired. There is a repair shop down the street. They're going down to get help. They find that Melvin Kelly is the chief mechanic. While Melvin fixes their rotor, Art and Bill are going to the Daily Comet, the town's newspaper to see Allen Kimball, who is the chief printer there.

They're taking off once more and are going to see Bonnie Kennedy who is doing biological research work on algae. Here we also find Mary Tatro who is the secretary in the office at the Laboratory.

Moving farther on they find Janet Layn and Dianne Lathrop. Janet has opened up her own beauty salon and Dianne is the dental hygienist in the dental clinic next door.

They're coming to the next town now where they find Charlie Cardell who is doing physical therapy work at the general hospital. They find out from Charlie that Roddy Cousino, who is a coach at a nearby school, has brought his team to the state championship.

They're coming now to a town in which there is a large college. At the college book store they find John Tulley, the manager. John tells them that Bill Masterson is the accountant at a large corporation in the city.

Prophecy

Next, as they are flying over road construction, they land to find out if they could buy some fuel for the copter. They are told to go see the head engineer. They find that he is Hubert Norton. He tells them Ronnie LaRose is also an engineer on a different part of the construction farther on.

They are entering the next town now and they find out that Patricia Brown and Patricia Lathrop are nurses at the city hospital. At the hospital also is Lenny Halnon, the psychologist.

They're moving now back to their helicopter and flying to the next town where they find Judy Gardner. She has opened her own interior decorating business. She tells them of a few other classmates nearby. Judy Booska is a secretary for a local law firm and Dennis Adams is an accountant and David Adams is a public relations man for the same oil corporation.

They're moving on again and are now coming to more road construction. Lloyd Dike is the head engineer and he has Loren Lathrop as his assistant. Also in the town nearby is Michele Yashko, who is the mathematics teacher at the local high school.

Moving on they find Judy Wedge is a secretary for an engineering firm. One of the engineers working on a dam project is Brian Brown. Brian tells them that the two Hutchins girls are working in a nearby city. Diane is a hair stylist for a beauty shop and Rhonda works at the local television station as a computer programmer.

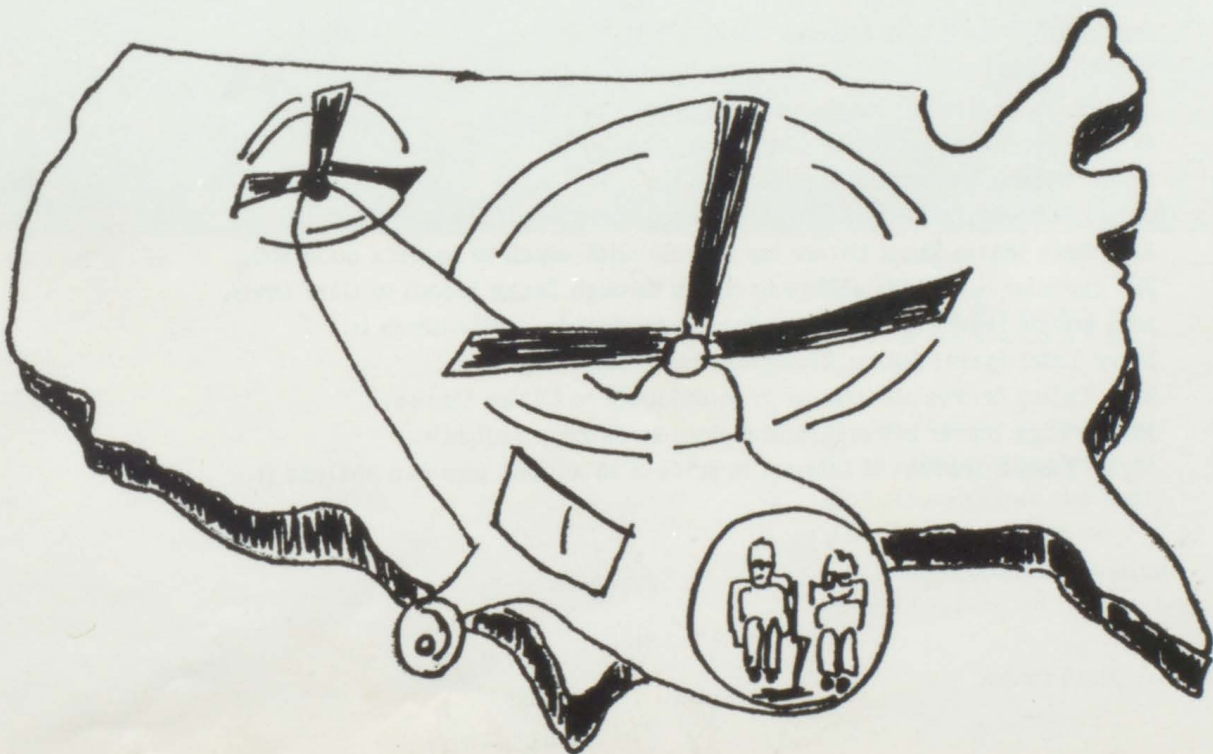

They start flying to the next town where they hear that car races are being held. They decide to drop in and catch a little fun. They find that Glenn Palmore and Jeffrey Quittner both drive racing cars and that Asahel Hoffnagle is their auto mechanic.

They are coming to the end of their trip but find that Judy Robair is the secretary for the Pacific coast telephone company. She tells them that Sheila Burke is married and lives just down the street from her office.

They are now arriving in Santa Cruz. They learn that Richard Jimmo is a drill sergeant at the army basic training camp in San Diego.

Having seen all their classmates they now can go ahead and set up the new plant.

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of Bristol High School, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all wills made by us before this date.

To the faculty of B.H.S., we leave our appreciation for their help and friendship.
To the Junior Class, we leave our ability to sell magazines and win the ice cream feast.
To the Sophomore Class, we leave our contributions to school activities.
To the Freshman Class, we leave our ability to reach the top.
Dave Adams leaves his ability to stay out of trouble to Denny McDonough.
Dennis Adams leaves his route to New Haven to Anne Cousino.
Judy Booska leaves her ability to study to Roger Tatro.
Shelly Bouvier leaves the rest of the Cousinos.
Brian Brown leaves his bum leg to Denny McDonough.
Pat Brown leaves her giggles to Jill Tomasi.
Sheila Burke leaves her quiet manner to Tommy Cushman.
Larry Burritt leaves nothing for he says he needs all he has.
Charlie Cardell leaves his wood business to Ricky Gardner.
Roddy Cousino leaves his interest in sports to Ronnie McCormick.
Lloyd Dike leaves his marks to anyone who can add anything to them.
Judy Gardner leaves her ability to lose things to anyone who can find them.
Len Halnon leaves his ability to be an individualist to Bobby O'Bryan.
Asahel Hoffnagle leaves his height to Bruce Cassidy.
Diane Hutchins leaves her car and license to Barbara Pinsonault so she can drive up to Lincoln and keep track of her many boyfriends there.
Rhonda Hutchins leaves the managing of the girls' basketball team to Helene Jeffers.
Dick Jimmo leaves his seat in Mr. Medor's English class.
Melvin Kelly leaves his wrecked Ford to Freddy Wedge.
Bonnie Kennedy leaves her ENTHUSIASM for class meetings to Richard Dwyer.
Ruth Kennedy leaves her ability to do her homework to Jean Kennedy.
Ronnie LaRose leaves the road to Vergennes to John Provoncha.
Dianne Lathrop leaves her ability to play clarinet to her brother Duane.
Loren Lathrop leaves his ability to stay broke to Rog Tatro.
Pat Lathrop leaves her interest in extracurricular activities to Vance Evarts.
Susan Lavoie leaves her "big" feet to Denny McDonough.
Janet Layn leaves her height to Dom Whitcomb.
Bill Masterson leaves his long drive to school.
Hubie Norton leaves Bristol High School.
Glenn Palmore leaves his interest in Vergennes to anyone who wants it.
Art Pitkin leaves Dana Levarn his bicycle with which to make a doodlebug.
Jeff Quittner leaves his ability to rip up through Drake Woods to Gary Orvis.
Judy Robair leaves her height to Freddy Wedge; he surely needs it.
Mary Tatro leaves Robert Thompson her quietness in class.
John Tulley leaves his interest in Middlebury to Claire Dumas.
Judy Wedge leaves her cigarette lighter to Sammy Thibault.
Myke Yashko leaves her interest in science to anyone who can analyze it.

Autumn

We saw leaves go to glory,
Then almost migratory
Go part way down the lane,
And then to end the story
Get beaten down and pasted
In one wild day of rain.

Winter

But for undisturbed people winter is one long delight to the eye.
In other lands one knows the snow
as a nuisance that comes and goes . . .
Here it lies longer on the ground than any crop--

Rudyard Kipling

English, a Never-Ending Comprehension of Our Language and Literature

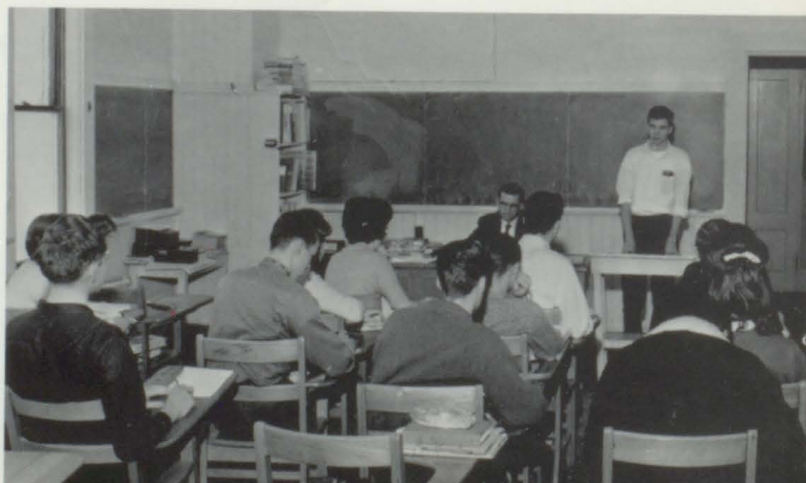

In English 11 students study American Literature, reading well-known authors and their works.

English 12 deals with the study of vocabulary, which enables them to better understand literature and to improve their writing of compositions.

College Preparatory English studies English Literature and its writers, searching for the ideas of the authors.

Speech helps the students to speak correctly and to prepare and to deliver speeches for many different situations.

Foreign Languages Assist Us in Understanding Foreign Lands and Peoples

Students in Latin I receive a basis of study that may help them in future occupations and help them in the study of other languages.

German II and III develops the student's ability to speak, read and write in German.

French II teaches students to speak and read the language through repetition and reading various books.

In French III students learn to express their ideas in French, and to speak and read the language more extensively.

Science, of Ever Increasing Importance in This Age of Space

Biology students study the basis of plant and animal life and learn their characteristics.

Chemistry teaches how to write and to balance formulas and equations. Students also do simple experimentation.

Physics teaches students different laws of science, and experiments are done concerning mechanics, heat, and light.

Qualitative Analysis students learn to analyze unknown mixtures and to write more complicated equations.

Mathematics, a Continual Need for the Future

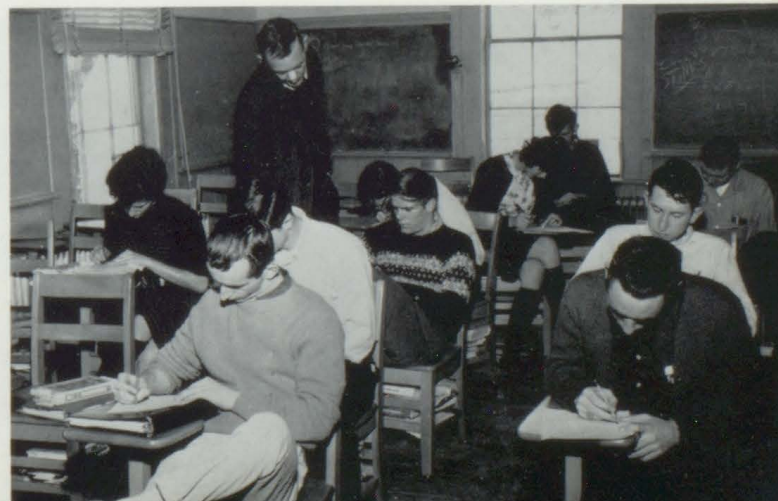

Algebra II teaches students to solve and to analyze complex equations.

Geometry students study different figures and the relationships between the different parts of these figures.

Trigonometry deals with the relationships between the sides and angles of triangles. Students learn to work with and to prove these relationships.

Calculus teaches the students to analyze a problem having been given minimum data.

Business Courses Aid Students in Preparing for Future Occupations

Typing teaches a student how to type for his personal use and for business purposes.

Shorthand students learn to read and to write shorthand. This skill aids them in future occupations.

Bookkeeping teaches students how to keep and manage different records both for personal and business purposes.

Clerical practice deals with the workings of office employment, including filing and business machines.

Social Studies Examine the Past and Present and Try to Calculate the Future

Civics teaches the students how their government runs, how it protects them, and how its other functions operate.

In United States History students learn upon what principles our country was founded and many important events in the life of our country.

Students in Problems of American Democracy study our democracy and its problems, learning how to react to these problems and possibly finding a solution.

Economics concerns us with how our every-day life is influenced by the products and services we utilize.

Home Economics and Health, the Keys to a Better Life

Health shows students the proper care of the body, both physically and mentally.

Health teaches students the necessity of a physical fitness program.

Home Economics teaches students how to prepare well-balanced meals by practical experiences.

Spring

The grateful odor of the warming earth comes to your nostrils; to your ears from every side, the sounds of spring; and yet you wait for fuller confirmation of its presence . . .

Deer Leap

The 1964 Deer Leap is the result of many long hours of dedicated work. In May of 1963 several members of the staff journeyed to Boston University for the annual yearbook conference, where they obtained many new and refreshing ideas. The yearbook is sponsored by the senior class, but is a self-supporting publication. We have tried to make the contents of the yearbook an accurate representation of life at Bristol High School.

The "Scoop" is published once each marking period to provide the students with news about school activities and the "latest" things in a teenager's life.
